

English

DEFINITION: The verb is the word that tells us the main action someone did. E.g. watched or talked.

Underline the verb in each of these sentences. The first one has been done for you.

1. Jack played football.
2. Jade watched the film.
3. The friends talked on the phone.
4. Josh arrived late.
5. The cat purred softly.
6. I baked a cake.

Here are some sentences that tell what happens (present tense):

Sally works at the bank every Saturday.

I always ask for more cake.

These sentences tell what happened (past tense):

Sally worked at the bank last year.

I asked for more cake yesterday.

RULE: When you tell what happened, you put "ed" on the end of the action.

Task - change the verbs into past tense. The first one has been done for you.
