Weeks- 2.10.23-10.11.23	Core Value Focus- Knowledge and Wisdom
Scripture Link “If you listen to me you will know right, just and fair. You will know what to do. You will become wise and your knowledge will give you pleasure” Proverbs 10:9-10	Message from the Principal Jesus said to his followers that deeds prove wisdom in Matthew 11:19. In other words, how we behave, what we say and do, evidences how wise we are. At Queen Elizabeth’s we deliver a knowledge rich curriculum- both subject and pastoral. In the pastoral curriculum we aim to develop our nine core values so just like the Good Samaritan in the parable that inspires our Christian vision, we give our all to all, everyday. I like to think that Jesus would consider the community here at Queen Elizabeth’s to be wise, as we put our core values into action, allowing our deeds to prove our wisdom.
Message from the Chaplain People say that ‘knowledge opens doors’ and Christians have long acknowledged and placed importance on learning so that students can excel in knowledge. Life in all its fullness is a phrase we use at QEA (John 10:10). This is a rich vision because it doesn’t limit knowledge to knowing about the world or different subjects. Jesus is talking about an abundant life which includes knowing Jesus himself!. Christians believe that we don’t just know want to know about Jesus but that we can actually know Jesus. Jesus said those who know me know my voice and he invited people to look at his life and his actions to see if he really was the Son of God.	Discussion points What are your hopes for the future? What do you need to know and how do you need to grow to get there? Think for a moment about all that you have learned since primary school for example. How much wiser are you now? Think of all the things you know or have heard about Jesus. The Christian faith includes knowing Jesus today. Do you know Him personally?
