

Week 12.5.25-13.6.25	Core Value Focus Nurture
Scripture Link Peter said to Jesus “Lord you know all things. You know that I love you”, Jesus said “Tend my sheep” John 21:17	Message from the Principal We talk often in the academy about belonging to the Queen Elizabeth’s Family. We work hard to protect and develop that family ethos, keeping our children at the heart of all that we do. Just like we do in our own families. We nurture our staff and students so that they can flourish into the very best versions of themselves, reaching their enormous potential and achieving whatever they set out to achieve. We are very proud of our QE family, and nurturing that family is one of the most important things that we do every day.
Message from the Chaplain My dad is an avid gardener, he loves nothing more than to be outside pottering around in his garden, whether that's digging up old plants, planting new ones, weeding, dead heading, pruning, mowing the grass or looking for the next set of bulbs he may want to plant in the year, something always needs doing. His attention to detail to provide a nurturing environment for his plants to grow is second to none. To provide a nurturing environment is something QEA is constantly striving to do. It is not a one size fits all or something that it is the same throughout the year. To nurture our students, we regularly look at how they are doing and what they may need in addition to what is already available, to ensure they have the chance to thrive. A shepherd ensures his sheep are well cared for and protected, Jesus asks us to do the same with one another. So, we do our best to care for, protect and nurture every student because they are special and important to us. Just as the shepherd left the 99 to look for the lost 1, we too are invested in the	Discussion points <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • How can we best care for and nurture someone? • What might make it hard to nurture someone? • What things do you think we need to truly thrive at what we are doing? • What things may we need to protect ourselves from? • What examples of nurture can you find in the Christian faith?

A Prayer for Nurture

Lord thank you for the care we receive

For the chances to grow and learn and be taught

Help us to see opportunities to care for others

Thank you for our rest, our food and for our friends

Thank you Jesus that You cared for your disciples

Thank you that you care for us

Amen
