

Weeks- 23.3.26-1.5.26	Core Value Focus- Knowledge and wisdom
Scripture Link “If you listen to me you will know right, just and fair. You will know what to do. You will become wise and your knowledge will give you pleasure” Proverbs 10:9-10	Message from the Principal This value holds a special place in all our hearts. As you know, Queen Elizabeth’s delivers a knowledge rich curriculum, and all our staff pride themselves on delivering knowledge in their subject areas to a high standard. Being wise is the next step- how can we use our wealth of knowledge in the best possible way? We encourage all our staff and students to believe that they can be whatever they want to be in life (that’s our QEA Why), using their depth of knowledge in a wise way to reach their potential. This week in standing briefing students were asked to reflect on their choices...choices that shape who they are and who they will become. In doing so they are using their knowledge whilst developing their wisdom. We invite you to ask your child about their learning, wisdom and reflections in this worship cycle.
Message from the Chaplain What is the first thing you can remember learning? Who taught you? In order to learn we have to place our trust in people. Trust that they are sharing the right type of knowledge and wisdom with us. At QEA we are committed to building trust with our students and ensuring that they get the best possible opportunity to learn not only academically but in life. We understand the importance of positive role models and encourage that not only as staff but also between the students themselves. Christians too have to build up trust in their faith and how it shapes and guides them in their life. They look to Jesus, the ultimate role model to help them learn how to be the best version of themselves.	Discussion points <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ How can we listen well? ✓ Do we ever check if the knowledge being shared with us is right? ✓ How can we be just and fair with others? ✓ How can you tell if someone is wise?

A prayer for knowledge and wisdom
